1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Link Group, Horizon Housing Association, Larkfield Housing Association and West Highland Housing Association, ["Link"] as Registered Social Landlords [RSLs], have been designated as public authorities for the purposes of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 [EI(S)R].

1.2. 'Environmental information' is defined as:

- the state of the elements of the environment, such as air and atmosphere, water, soil, landscape and natural sites.
- factors, such as substances, energy, noise, radiation or waste, including radioactive waste, emissions, discharges and other releases into the environment affecting or likely to affect the elements of the environment

2. PRINCIPLES

The following principles govern the operation of this policy:

- Be clear and understood by all employees
- Reflect the needs of our diverse organisation
- Reflect legislative requirements and best practice
- Be flexible and adaptable to changing needs

3. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this policy are to provide:

- A consistent approach to dealing with EI(S)R requests
- An awareness of legislative requirements to all employees
- A framework to manage EI(S)R compliance

4. APPROACH AND METHOD

The policy will be implemented using the following approaches:

4.1 Responsibilities

4.1.1 The Director of Human Resources and Business Support has overall responsibility for ensuring compliance with this policy and the legislation.

4.1.2 The Information Management Co-ordinator has day-to-day responsibility for ensuring compliance with this policy and the legislation.

- 4.1.3 All employees are responsible for ensuring that EI(S)R requests they receive are dealt with in accordance with the legislation and in compliance with this policy.

4.2 Submitting a valid request

- 4.2.1 An EI(S)R request can be made verbally or in writing and does not have to refer to the legislation. If the request is made verbally, clarification may be sought in writing to ensure the request will be processed accurately.

4.3 Dealing with requests

- 4.3.1 Recorded information held by Link which applies to the specific provisions of the legislation are subject to EI(S)R. The information can be on paper or in an electronic format.
- 4.3.2 Where a valid request is received, there is a duty to confirm whether or not Link holds the information and if it does hold it to provide the information so long as an exception does not apply.
- 4.3.3 If the request is unclear, Link will ask for clarification as soon as possible to enable us to proceed with the request.
- 4.3.4 Link will provide advice and assistance to help individuals make requests under EI(S)R. We will acknowledge requests within five working days.
- 4.3.5 Link will respond to valid requests promptly and in any event within 20 working days. If the scope of the request is such that the 20-working day timescale cannot be met the requester will be advised as soon as possible and be provided with an indicative response time.

4.4 Exceptions

- 4.4.1 The EI(S)R does not entitle requesters to be given all information held by Link. The legislation sets out exceptions to the right of access to information.
- 4.4.2 All of the exceptions under the EI(S)R are subject to a public interest test.
- 4.4.3 The following non-exhaustive list of exemptions may be applied to information held by a Scottish public authority under EI(S)R:
- Information not held
 - Intellectual property rights
 - Confidentiality of proceedings
 - Confidentiality of commercial or industrial information
 - Third party interests
 - Protection of the environment

- 4.4.4 Any request made by an individual for their own personal data will be treated as a subject access request under the Data Protection Act 2018.
- 4.4.5 Any request made relating to an element of the environment or any factors affecting the elements of the environment will be treated as a request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

4.5 Vexatious requests

- 4.5.1 Link is not required to comply with a request which is deemed to be 'vexatious'.
- 4.5.2 The following factors will be considered when determining whether a request is vexatious:
 - It would impose a significant burden on Link
 - It does not have a serious purpose or value
 - It is designed to cause disruption or annoyance to Link
 - It has the effect of harassing Link
 - It would otherwise, in the opinion of a reasonable person, be considered to be manifestly unreasonable or disproportionate

4.6 Repeated requests

- 4.6.1 Link may refuse to respond to an identical or substantially similar request for information if a reasonable period of time has not lapsed between requests.

4.7 Charges for information

- 4.7.1 Link may charge a fee to anyone making a request under the EI(S)R in accordance with our charging schedule and applicable fees regulations under EI(S)R. This fee should not exceed a "reasonable amount" and must not exceed the actual cost of producing the information requested. Our charging schedule is available on our website by visiting <https://linkhousing.org.uk/access-to-information/eir/charging-schedule/>.

4.8 Publication Scheme

- 4.8.1 Link has adopted the Scottish Information Commissioner's Model Publication Scheme. The Publication Scheme sets out what information Link will make available, classified by the type of information and how the information can be accessed. To view the publication scheme, please visit:

4.9 Copyright

4.9.1 Where Link holds the copyright to its published information, the information may be copied or reproduced without formal permission, provided that:

- It is copied or reproduced accurately
- It is not used in a misleading context
- The source of the material is identified

4.9.2 Where Link does not hold the copyright to the published information we will make this clear.

4.10 Alternative Formats

4.10.1 We will make responses to requests for information available in alternative formats on request.

5. MONITORING OF THE POLICY

Any matter which demonstrates a serious failure of internal controls should be reported immediately to the Chief Executive.

6. COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Link welcomes complaints and positive feedback, both of which provide information which helps us to improve our services. If an individual has made a request and are unhappy with the response, there is a two-step process to follow to help resolve the complaint.

Step 1: an individual has the right to ask Link to review our response. The individual should ask for Link to review the decision no later than 40 working days after receiving our response. When asking us to review our response an individual must do so in writing and include:

- Name
- Address (postal or email)
- Details of the individual's original request
- Tell us why the individual wants us to review our response to their request

We will carry out a review and respond to the individual with the outcome within 20 working days.

Step 2: if an individual remains unhappy after the review stage they can make an appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner's Office online by visiting www.itspublicknowledge.info, by email to enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info, or by writing to:
